

2007 CSR Report

Editorial Remarks

■Purpose of Publication

This report has been published for the purpose of communicating with all stakeholders comprising the ROHM Group, and fulfilling our duty for public accountability concerning activities of the ROHM Group aimed at achieving a sustainable society.

■Editorial Policy

ROHM has been publishing an annual environmental report since FY2000, and has published a report on society and the environment since FY2004 with contents expanded to include not only environmental aspects, but social aspects as well.

ROHM's current CSR (corporate social responsibility) Report (2007 edition) has a wide-ranging readership and adopts visual aids to facilitate reading and comprehension.

■Content

A configuration has been adopted which has three sections: basic system concerning CSR; report on social aspects; report on environmental aspects. With regard to the environmental aspects, site reports of all production bases within the scope of the report are included.

Scope of Report

Environmental aspects: ROHM CO., LTD. and 18 affiliates (10 Japanese companies and 8 non-Japanese companies)

Social aspects: reporting centers on ROHM CO., LTD. and matters limited to specific affiliates.

Period Covered by Report

April 1, 2006 to March 31, 2007

However, there are some references to subjects in the previous periods (as necessary) merely for the purpose of better comprehension.
